Social and Personal

One of the handsomest functions of the midwinter was a reception given by Mrs. Phillip Taylor at her home, on East Grace Street, Tuesday afternoon. The house was exquisitely decorated throughout with palms and smilax. In the drawing room pink roses were arranged in jossuils and spring flowers, and in the dining room the color scheme was pink with a lovely basket of pink flowers as centerpiece for the table.

Receiving with Mrs. Taylor were: Mrs. Lee Sutton, of Petersburg; Mrs. James Caskie, Mrs. William Meade Clarke, Mrs. Charles Bosher, Mrs. W. H. Sauer, Mrs. W. S. Rhodes, Miss Elizabeth Jeffries, and Miss Anita Cussons. About 200 guests called during the afternoon.

In Honor of Mrs. Dillam.
Says a Philadelphia paper: Mrs. David E. Dillam, Jr., will be honor guest at a luncheon on Saturday, February 11, to be given by Mrs. David English Dillam, of 2310 Spruce Street, Mr. and Mrs. Dillam, Jr., have recently returned from their wedding trip. Mrs. Dillam was Miss Lily West of Richmond.

James-Garnett.
Muscos H. Garnett announces the approaching marriage of his daughter, Miss Mary Roy Garnett, to Mate F. James, of this city, which will take place Thursday, February 9, in the home of the bride, 104 South First Street. The wedding will be a very quiet one, with only relatives and immediate friends present.

In Honor of Debutantes.
Mrs. William F. Palmer, Jr., was the hostess at a bridge luncheon yesterday at the Country Club in honor of Misses Zayde Branch, Dorothy Christian, and Isabel Carter. The guests will be this season's debutantes.

Meeting of Suffrage League.
Mrs. Charles Bosher will preside at the general meeting of the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia, to be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the league headquarters, 261 East Franklin Street.

Miss Meltrim in Washington.
Miss Sophy Meltrim, of Savannah, Ga., is the guest of Mrs. John L. Morehead, in Washington. Miss Meltrim is a popular visitor in Virginia.

RESIGNS AS TREASURER OF PRINCE WILLIAM

Captain Herrell Unable to Raise New Bond, and D. J. Arlington named as His Successor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Manassas, Va., February 1.—D. J. Arlington was today appointed by Judge J. B. T. Thornton treasurer of Prince William county, to succeed Captain J. E. Herrell, resigned. Captain Herrell was bonded in the sum of $40,000 by the Alexandria Safe Deposit and Trust Company, of Alexandria, which recently went into the hands of receivers. He was not successful in his efforts to get other bond, and consequently resigned. Mr. Arlington was appointed upon the recommendation of Captain Herrell, Judge Thornton having expressed his willingness to appoint some one who Captain Herrell should suggest, providing the successor named would be acceptable to the people of the county.

WILL TENDER RESIGNATION.

Congressman-Elect Stedman Will Not Continue as Railroad President.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Winston-Salem, N. C., February 1.—It is stated that Major C. M. Stedman, member-elect to Congress from this district, will tender his resignation as president of the North Carolina Railroad. The State owns the controlling interest in this road, and Major Stedman was elected two years ago. A meeting of the stockholders will be called to elect a president as soon as Major Stedman's resignation is received. Two directors will also be named at that time.

Winter Course for Farmers Unusually Successful—Other A. and M. News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) West Raleigh, N. C., February 1.—The winter course for farmers has been unusually successful this year. A few years ago only fifteen or twenty farmers attended this course, which is given during January and February, especially for practical farmers. This year nearly seventy farmers, some of them middle-aged men, are attending the lectures and demonstrations. They are well interested in their work, and will go home with many new ideas and high aspirations. Five different courses are represented by the winter course.

This year the number of agricultural students in college has risen to 218. This is a growth in two years of over 100 per cent. If the same growth should continue for the next two years there will be over 500 agricultural students enrolled.

County Superintendent of Education Z. V. Judd and Dr. W. McN. White conducted chapel services during the past week.

Editor E. E. Miller, of the "Progressive Farmer," delivered a very interesting lecture to the winter course students a few nights ago.

Hon. Henry B. F. McFarland, of Washington, D. C., for three terms a commissioner of the District of Columbia, who has been in Raleigh attending the eighth annual interstate conference of the Carolina Y. M. C. A., conducted the Sunday evening meeting of the college Y. M. C. A. in Pullen Hall. He was heard by a very large audience.

inary feel a distinct loss in his resignation.

No date has yet been set for the consecration of Dr. Green. During his stay in Richmond Dr. Green has been the guest of Rev. J. J. Gravatt, rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity.

Completed by his absence yesterday was Rev. Robert W. Price, rector of St. Paul's Church, who has been repeatedly ill at his home in East Grace Street. A resolution expressing regret for his absence and sympathy for his illness, but gratification upon improved physical condition, was adopted by a rising vote.

Resolutions thanking the laymen of Richmond for the supper tendered the council Tuesday night, and Rev. William Meade Clark, D. D., and his congregation for the use of St. James Church, were also adopted.

Possom Hunt To-Night.

Lew Doekstader and his "Twentieth Century Minstrels" now under his own management, will be the attraction at the Academy to-night. The entertainment is creation in the black-face comedy. Associated with Doekstader this season are Carroll Johnson, Eddie Mazier, and Doekstader makes his own ideas to make his minstrel's unique. Mr. Doekstader this year comes forward with a pretentious offering, which he calls "The Possom Hunt, Revisited." As usual, there is the "first part" scene. It shows the lawn of the club and it is here that the songs and stories are related by the club members.

A fitting climax to this scene Doekstader comes forward as Lew Doekstader, with a budget of up-to-date wit and lyrics. He also starts the story of the club, which is carried through to the final curtain. Doekstader is the unanimous choice of the club members to accompany Col. Stedman to-night in their hunt, but escaped the dreaded trip through the machinations of the voodoo man and a bottle of wonderful dream beverage. As the curtain descends Doekstader is in slumberland amid the strains of a vocal choir, and the second part of the play is the realization of his dreams.

Among some of the large numbers may be mentioned the travesty on "Phaeton," a spectacular dance called "Louisiana," introducing Carroll Johnson and the Island of "Chanticleer," with its wonderfully costumed inhabitants. Doekstader makes his own ideas to make his minstrel's unique. Mr. Doekstader this year comes forward with a pretentious offering, which he calls "The Possom Hunt, Revisited." As usual, there is the "first part" scene. It shows the lawn of the club and it is here that the songs and stories are related by the club members.

ENDS INQUIRY INTO AFFAIRS OF BANK

Grand Jury, Without Making Report, Adjourns Until February 14.

MAN KICKED IN HEAD BY MULE

Sentenced for Swindling—Other Petersburg News

Notes.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 192 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., February 1.

The grand jury of the Hastings Court practically concluded its investigation into the affairs of the old Appomattox Trust Company to-day, after giving brief hearings to several witnesses. At 12:30 o'clock the jury came into the court, and, through the foreman, C. W. Bland, without making any report, asked for an adjournment until Tuesday morning, February 14. The foreman stated that there were good and sufficient reasons for the adjournment, and the court promptly granted the request. The grand jurors, one and all, decline to make any statement of what their report will be, and the community is left to its own conjectures. These are many, but are based on no definite information.

Kicked in Head by Mule.
Sheriff George Boisseau, of Prince George county, was seriously injured this evening by being kicked in the head by a mule. Sheriff Boisseau was walking down Lombard Street, when his hat blew off, rolling under a country wagon standing near the sidewalk. Sheriff Boisseau attempted to pick up his hat, when the mule kicked at him, striking him in the head, inflicting a fracture of the skull and cutting two large gashes on his head. Sheriff Boisseau was at once taken to the hospital and made as comfortable as possible. His condition is regarded as critical.

Plead Guilty to Swindling.
In the Police Court this morning, Nathan Goldman, the young man who was arrested yesterday, after a long and exciting chase, on the charge of attempting to swindle two citizens, pleaded guilty to the charges and was sentenced to six months in the State Prison in jail—three months on each charge. Information is to the effect that, under different names, Goldman has visited various sections of the country, taking cash subscriptions to the American Magazine and promising to each subscriber an ebony-back set as a premium. He has evidently done a good business, but the faked subscribers never got the magazine or the premiums. He is wanted for this swindling practice in various places, and

Police Arrests in January.
The police of this city made 220 arrests in January, classified as follows: Assaults and batteries, 18; drunkenness, 72; felony, 6; fugitives from justice, 7; larceny, 21; lunacy, 4; misdemeanor, 10; peace warrant, 1; trespass, 6; vagrancy, 1; violations of city ordinance, 72. Most of the cases charged to drunkenness occur at the week-end, Saturday being pay day, and some of them occur on Sunday.

For Cheaper Gas.
A special committee of the Council is investigating as to the feasibility of establishing a municipal light plant, and is gathering information as to the subject from other cities. The question is one of interest to the community, inasmuch as the price paid for gas here is $1.35 per 1,000 feet, with 10 per cent discount for prompt payment. The gas company has been in communication with as to a reduction in price, and the matter is to be brought before the board of directors in Philadelphia. The company has been expending much money recently in the improvement of its properties here, but it is believed, will consent to a reasonable reduction in prices. On this decision will probably depend the report of the committee in favor of a municipal plant.

General News in Brief.
The remains of George Percy Peterson, who died yesterday morning in Asheville, N. C., will reach Petersburg to-morrow morning and will be taken to his late home on South Sycamore Street. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from Washington Street M. E. Church.

Commissioner of Revenue Smith has appointed the following personal property assessors: First Ward, J. B. Price; Second Ward, A. S. Rehnach; Third Ward, D. C. Duane; Fourth Ward, R. A. Wilkinson; Fifth Ward, J. D. Ragland; Sixth Ward, D. C. Duane.

Applications for reduction of assessment of real estate for the values fixed by the assessors last year will be heard at the February term of the Hastings Court. It is said that the number of "kickers" is likely to be large.

The American Bank and Trust Company has removed from its rooms in the Mechanics Association building to the new building on the Odd-fellows' building, to be occupied until their new bank is erected.

The work of grading the new baseball park in the western park of the city was begun to-day.

Post C. R. P. A. of this city, is one of the largest of its order in the State. It has 240 members.

The Patterson Bible class of the Second Presbyterian Church celebrated its third anniversary last night with highly interesting exercises and in the presence of a large assembly. Addresses were delivered by Rev. C. R. Strubling and Rev. D. H. Raiston, and a banquet was served. Captain John R. Patterson is the leader of the class.

The fifteen-year-old son of Mrs. Charles Cain, in Ettrick, has been missing since yesterday, and active search is being made for him.

Sales of tobacco were very heavy again to-day, with high prices ruling. Yesterday $10 per hundred pounds were paid for fine wrappers, the highest price of the season.

Second Lieutenant-elect Charles Wesley, Jr., of the Petersburg Grays, Company G, Second Virginia Infantry, having failed to appear for examination, his position has been declared vacant, and the company has been ordered to hold an election to fill the vacancy.

Captain Bloodgood, of the dredge in the harbor, was a full eight feet before last, and was painfully hurt.

Robert Price, a farmer on James River, Chesterfield county, while intoxicated yesterday, threatened to kill his wife, who sought protection with a neighbor. Price shot and wounded Constable Whitmore, who was called to the scene, and in turn was shot by the constable. Neither was dangerously hurt.

Shelton—Shelton.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., February 1.—Monroe Shelton and Miss Virginia Shelton, daughter of Mr. W. M. W. Shelton, of Stafford county, were married Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. A. T. Lynn officiating.

Sorell—McGhee.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., February 1.—Jos. A. Sorell and Miss Maggie Delane McGhee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McGhee, both of Spotsylvania county, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents in that county, Rev. W. J. Decker officiating.

Will Be Candidate to Succeed Glass.

State Senator Halsey Will Make Race for Congress in Sixth District.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, Va., February 1.—Senator Don P. Halsey, of Lynchburg, was in Roanoke to-day on his way to Blacksburg, where he will make address to the students of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute. When asked to make a statement concerning the report that he will run for Congress from this District, Senator Halsey said:

"Presuming from his former utterances and from the fact that he has recently announced his candidacy for the United States Senate that the incumbent, Hon. Carter Glass, will not again be a candidate for the House of Representatives, I desire to say that I will take the first opportunity to offer myself before the people of the Sixth District as a candidate for the honor of representing them in Congress, subject, of course, to the nomination of the Democratic party. I do not know yet when the nomination is to be made, for the reason that if Mr. Glass is elected to the Senate a special election will be necessary to fill out the unexpired term. If, however, he shall be defeated, the election will not be held in the ordinary course of events until the fall of 1911. It is manifestly too early, therefore, to formally announce my candidacy, with a statement of my views, but in order to give ample notice, I think it proper at this time to make it known that I fully expect to be a candidate for the next Democratic nomination for Congress from this district, and that later on I will make formal statement of my candidacy and my position."

DAWSON STILL BARRICADED.

Will Be Guarded Until He Gives Up or Is Starved Out.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) New Market, Va., February 1.—James Dawson, who on Monday attempted to murder his wife at Mt. Jackson, and then barricaded himself from the officers, has not yet been captured. He will be guarded until he either gives up or is starved out. Mrs. Dawson is expected to recover. Officers think that Dawson is insane.

Get Three Years' Sentence.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Harrisonburg, Va., February 1.—Raymond Martz, twenty-one years old, has been on trial for three days, being closed doors in the Circuit Court, on the charge of attacking his first cousin, Miss Emma Martz, seventeen years old. The family is one of the most prominent in Virginia. The jury to-day returned a verdict of guilty, and Martz was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.
